Square Dancers Plan Party for Novice Twirlers

Beginning square dancers will have a chance to try out their skill at a "beginners round-up" square dance tomorrow night at the Roosevelt School, 3533 W. Compton Blvd.

Sponsored by the Traveling Yardbirds square dance club, the dance has been specially planned to appeal to novice dancers who have had 12 or more lessons, according to club President Charles Barngrover.

A "box supper" social is to be combined with the dance with each couple bringing box lunches. Coffee and other refreshments will be provided by the club.

The dance begins at 8 p.m. and lasts until 11:30 p.m.

CANDIDATE . . . R. A. Neutzman, candidate for County Assessor, urges the prevention of sudden and unwarranted assessment increases by insuring uniformly proportional assessments. The 37-year-old candidate has resigned from his position in the L.A. County Assessor's office to make the race in the June 3 primary. His candidacy is being sponsored by a group of friends and property owners who have confidence in Neutzman's ability to give vigor and professional leadership in the fight to hold the line in property taxes in Los Angeles County.

Students to Give Recital

A group of 50 students will be presented in a spring recital Sunday, 2 to 5 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium.

The students are pupils of Slim Edwards' Mel-O-Dee Music Studio, 1427 Carson St.

Among those appearing will be Larry Carlton, 9, and Pat Heath, 15, who have been seen on television shows recently. Both play the Spanish guitar, using the finger-style technique.

fore parents and friends at the admission-free recital playing such instruments as the accordion, violin, piano, drums, steel guitar, saxophone, clarinet and Spanish guitar.

Edwards is the only instructor of the finger-style guitar playing in Southern California.
